

Islamic Critical Thinking: Ethics and Sensitive Contemporary Issues

Summer School 2014, Granada

Joint Programme

Monday 16th to Friday 20th June 2014
To be held in Granada, SPAIN

- 3 sessions per day, over 5 days (15 sessions in total)

Session I:	9:00am - 10:00am	Talk
Session II:	10:45am - 11:45am	Talk
	11:45am - 12:15pm	Discussion
Session III:	12:30pm - 1:30pm	Talk
	1:30pm - 2:00pm	Discussion
Session IV:	4:30pm - 6:30pm	Thematic debate

- 2 evening public lectures :
 - CMS/EMN/CILE: Tuesday 17th June: Critical thinking/ Renewal of Muslim ThoughtPanel
 - EMN/CILE : Friday 20th June: About or related to Challenges with Muslim Communities in Europe

- Participating students will be expected to attend for the duration of the 5 days
- We are proposing to offer sessions on Islamic ethics covering the following topics:
 - Rereading the scriptural sources (Al Minhajjya)
 - The Islamic scriptural sources and European context/critical thinking
 - Islam and Politics
 - Islam and Gender
 - History, migration and Human Rights
- Among the teachers and lecturers are:
 - Dr Mohamed Ghaly
Professor of Islam and Biomedical Ethics, CILE.
 - Dr Mohamed Moctar Al Shinqiti
Professor of Islam and political ethics, CILE.
 - Chauki Lazhar
Deputy Director, CILE.
 - Dr Tariq Ramadan
Director of CILE.
- Students: 20-25 places, aimed mainly at postgraduate level
- Language: all sessions will be delivered in English
- Fee: 800€ per student
 - Includes all course tutoring; accommodation and breakfasts for the duration of the 5-day course
 - Students must cover the costs of their own travel and transport and other meal/hospitality requirements
- Pre-registration: cile.summerschool@gmail.com
 - Students will be e-mailed an application form to complete and if their application is successful, they will be asked to confirm they would like to take up their place, and then arrange full payment.
 - Application deadline: 28/02/2014